

ASAKURA Museum of Sculpture

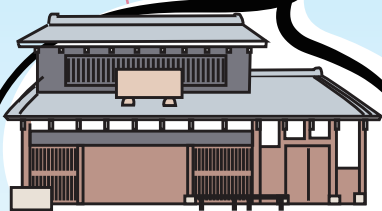

Shitamachi Museum
Museum closed due to renovation.

Sogakudo of the Former Tokyo Music School

Taito City Cultural Facility Walk

Shitamachi Museum Annex Old Yoshidaya Liquor Store

Ichiyo Memorial Museum

Calligraphy Museum

Where shall we go today?
Let's go for a walk together!

We regularly send out information on SNS.
Check us out!

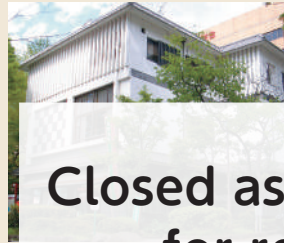

ASAKURA Museum of Sculpture was once a studio and residence of ASAKURA Fumio (1883-1964), a leading sculptor of modern Japan. ASAKURA designed and supervised the construction of the building himself and it attained its present form in 1935. In recognition of the artistic and ornamental value of the ASAKURA Museum of Sculpture, the building was listed as a National-registered Tangible Cultural Property, and the museum received recognition as a site of National-designated Place of Scenic Beauty to be known as "the former ASAKURA Fumio Garden".

- Entrance fee: Adults ¥500 (¥300)/ School student ¥250 (¥150) *1, *2, *3
- Hours: 09:30 – 16:30 (Last entry is 16:00)
- Closed: Monday and Thursday (The next day if it is a National Holiday)/ New Year's Holiday/ Special repair periods
- Address: 7-18-10 Yanaka, Taito-ku PHONE (03) 3821-4549
- ※Please wear socks in the building.

<https://www.taitogeibun.net/asakura/>

National-designated Place of Scenic Beauty / National-registered Tangible Cultural Property

ASAKURA Museum of Sculpture

The first floor is a recreation of the downtown Tokyo of the Taisho era (1912-1926) and has a longhouse, a townhouse, household items, and furniture on display. You can go upstairs in the longhouse and townhouse. The second floor displays a variety of artifacts from the Taisho era.

Closed as of April 2023 for renovation.

- Entrance fee: Adults ¥500 (¥300)/ School student ¥250 (¥150) *1, *2, *3
- Hours: 09:30 – 16:30 (Last entry is 16:00)
- Closed: Monday (The next day if it is a National Holiday)/ New Year's Holiday / Special repair periods
- Address: 2-1 Ueno Park, Taito-ku PHONE (03) 3823-7451

<https://www.taitogeibun.net/shitamachi/>

Shitamachi Museum

Built in 1890 as the Tokyo School of Music (Currently: Tokyo University of the Arts, Music Department), it is the oldest Western style music hall in Japan. It is a designated important cultural property. The pipe organ in the hall is the oldest one in Japan that can still be heard today in concerts.

- Entrance fee: Adults ¥300 (¥200)/ School students ¥100 (¥50) *1, *2, *3
- Hours: 09:30 – 16:30 (Last entry is 16:00)
- Opening days: Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday and other days the hall is not in use
- Closed: Monday (The next day if it is a National Holiday)/ New Year's Holiday/ Special repair periods
- Address: 8-43 Ueno Park, Taito-ku PHONE (03) 3824-1988

<https://www.taitogeibun.net/sougakudou/>

National Designated Important Cultural Property

Sogakudo of the Former Tokyo Music School

The Yoshidaya liquor store was on a corner of the old Yanaka-Chaya-Machi (currently Yanaka 6-chome), an old store from the Edo era and was in operation until 1986. The building was constructed in 1910. There are scales, Tokkuri Sake bottles, barrels, promotional posters and other items on display in the building and can be viewed at your leisure during opening times.

- Entrance fee: Free
- Hours: 09:30 – 16:30
- Closed: Monday (The next day if it is a National Holiday)/ New Year's Holiday
- Address: 2-10-6 Ueno Sakuragi, Taito-ku PHONE (03) 3823-4408

https://www.taitogeibun.net/shitamachi/shitamachi_annex/

Shitamachi Museum Annex Old Yoshidaya Liquor Store

The Museum was opened 1961 as the first literary museum dedicated to a female Japanese author. It is home to a host of important materials relating to Ichiyo Higuchi, including an unfinalized version of her work "Takekurabe," correspondence with her writing teacher Nakarai Tosui, a book of purchases from the time she opened a miscellaneous goods store in Shitayaryusenji-machi, and more.

- Entrance fee: Adult ¥300 (¥200)/ School students ¥100 (¥50) *1, *2, *3
- Hours: 09:00 – 16:30 (Last entry is 16:00)
- Closed: Monday (The next day if it is a National Holiday)/ New Year's Holiday/ Special repair periods
- Address: 3-18-4 Ryusen, Taito-ku PHONE (03) 3873-0004

<https://www.taitogeibun.net/ichiyo/>

Ichiyo Memorial Museum

This important collection traces the history of Kanji characters and gathers the work of the artist and writer, NAKAMURA Fusetsu (1866-1943). There are about 16,000 items stored here including 12 Important Cultural properties and 5 important pieces of art.

- Entrance fee: Adult ¥500 (¥300)/ School students ¥250 (¥150) *1, *2, *3
- Hours: 09:30 – 16:30 (Last entry is 16:00)
- Closed: Monday (The next day if it is a National Holiday)/ New Year's Holiday/ Special repair periods
- Address: 2-10-4 Negishi, Taito-ku PHONE (03) 3872-2645

<https://www.taitogeibun.net/shodou/>

Tokyo Designated Historic Site

Calligraphy Museum

It'll be sometimes temporary closing, so after confirming each website of facilities beforehand, please visit there.

*1 The number in the bracket () is the entrance fee per person for groups of 20 or more.

*2 Admission is free for holders of the Physical Disability Certificate, Developmental Disability Certificate, Mental Disability Certificate, the Specified Illness Medical Care Recipient Certificate, as well as accompanying individuals.

*3 Entry is free on every Saturday for elementary and secondary school students who live and attend school in Taito-ku, and their leaders (Every Sunday only for the Sogakudo Concert Hall).

The popular cultural facility "4 building entrance pass" is now on sale

You can enter 4 cultural facilities in Taito-ku. Save ¥800.

- Applicable facilities
ASAKURA Museum of Sculpture
Ichiyo Memorial Museum
Sogakudo of the Former Tokyo Music School
Calligraphy Museum
- Cost: ¥800 (Normal cost: ¥1,600)
- Vendors: Reception of the 4 applicable facilities
Asakusa Culture Tourist Information Center
Taito City Hall 1st floor shop, Taito
Taito City Hall 9th floor Culture Promotion Section
Art & Culture Foundation of Taito
- Valid for 1 year from the date of purchase.

The "Annual passport" is now on sale

This passport deal allows free entry to the issuing facility for 1 year from the date of purchase.

- Vendors: ASAKURA Museum of Sculpture, Ichiyo Memorial Museum, Sogakudo of the Former Tokyo Music School, Calligraphy Museum (Sales only) Taito City Hall 9th floor Culture Promotion Section, Asakusa Culture Tourist Information Center, Art & Culture Foundation of Taito
- Fees: ASAKURA Museum of Sculpture ¥1,000
Ichiyo Memorial Museum ¥600
Sogakudo of the Former Tokyo Music School ¥600
Calligraphy Museum ¥1,000
- Valid for 1 year from the date of purchase.